

One Oak

Heartland Family Service One Oak therapeutic school provides alternative education and Intensive Outpatient Programming (IOP) to young adults/teens. One Oak is housed in a historic mid-century building with abundant natural light, a centrally-located outdoor classroom, a gymnasium, an outdoor basketball court, a playground, and a community garden. The school also features a game room, a library, and mindfulness center to better support our students' academic, emotional, and occupational needs. One Oak staff value inclusion and diversity and welcome students of every race, religion, and socioeconomic background.
