So everyone can. HEARTLAND FAMILY SERVICE

Artist Visions of Our Community

We are excited to announce the six selected artists in our Heartland Family Service "So Everyone Can" Campaign! Gather your family and friends to visit each location and window painting – now through December 31, 2021.

Let us know your favorite one by snapping a selfie with it and sharing it on social media with us and others, using #SoEveryoneCan. If you're hungry, please enjoy lunch or dinner at one of the locations too!

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Leigha Atkisson – Heartland Family Service Central Admin Office
Leigha is a graduate student in Omaha, studying to be a Speech Language Pathologist.

Rileigh, Trey, and Sherri – Heartland Family Service Central Admin Office
Rileigh, Trey & Sherri are artists from the Angel Guardians group. They use mixed media and wood cutouts in their art.

Sedra D' – 1912
Sedra was born in Mexico City, and their art is in the style of graffiti murals.

Sue Kalicki – Herbe Sainte
Sue is an art teacher at Bryan High. She uses symbolic images such as the sun, stars, and hearts to portray love, kindness, and the feeling of home.

Anne Newman – Lincoln's Pub
Anne is an Omaha artist who has honed her painting skills as the in-store artist for Trader Joe's the past seven years.

Dany Reyes – Scriptown Brewing Co.
Dany immigrated to the United States from El Salvador in the 90s. He views his art as creating freedom through his canvas.
