

Heartland Bridges

The Heartland Family Service Heartland Bridges program provides short-term housing for people in transition to and from mental health or substance use treatment, support services, and/or the justice system. The goal of the program is to help clients secure permanent housing and connect them with community-based services. Program staff are available 24 hours at the facility for resident oversight and assistance. The facility offers 15 beds, a kitchen, laundry room, and living room.
