

Therapeutic School

At the Heartland Family Service Therapeutic School, we work with students and families to overcome the obstacles in their academic, social, and emotional progress. Our innovative approach provides a full day of academic and therapeutic programming for special needs students with major mental health diagnoses. Youth in kindergarten through 12th grade come to us from 29 schools across southwest Iowa to achieve academic success. In order to continue to carry out our mission, we are in need of the following supplies:
